A LETTER FROM OUR MAYOR

210 Sams Avenue • New Smyrna Beach, FL 32168 • (386) 410-2600

Welcome to New Smyrna Beach! NSB is one of the oldest and most interesting coastal communities in the United States! With seven miles of white sandy beach and eight miles along the intra-coastal waterway, we are known for boating, fishing, surfing, and water sports. The close proximity to Ponce Inlet and the inland back river waterways provide a haven for all water activities and eco-tourism. In addition to our beautiful beaches and waterways, our seaside community proudly offers recreational activities for families and visitors of all ages, including a wide array of art displays, studios and galleries as well as parks, playgrounds, golfing, tennis and shuffleboard.

We have two historic districts with inside and outside dining, unique local merchandise shopping, antique stores and art galleries. The Canaveral National Seashore Park borders our city to the south and many historic sites are nearby and to the west of the city. New Smyrna Beach is home to the Atlantic Center for the Arts, a world renowned, nonprofit arts education facility.

Our hospitality industry continues to thrive as many of our restaurants are noted for their exquisite cuisine, seafood specialties, live music and appreciation of wine.

For those visitors desiring overnight accommodations, we offer quaint bed and breakfast lodging, beachside hotels and condos for rent. When all these amazing attributes are combined you wind up with a community that is geared to family style living, where you can enjoy the sand and surf in a relaxed atmosphere for a weekend, a week, a season or a lifetime.

Sincerely, Fred Cleveland, Mayor

ABOUT THE COVER ARTIST

Sylvia Spradlin graduated from Bates College, and later expanded her interest in art, and watercolor in particular. Her work has been accepted in National Shows in New York and Vermont. Sylvia has attended numerous workshops by master artists. Since first coming to New Smyrna Beach over 20 years ago, she has especially enjoyed painting many local scenes.

Spradlin is a member of NSB Artists' Workshop, The Hub and the Daytona Museum of Art and Science. Her works have been exhibited at The Hub, the Artists' Workshop, the Artists' Gallery on Canal Street, as well as at the NSB Library and a number of other venues.

She says, "For me, painting is creative and fun. I like to paint Plein Air 'outside on location' to get a fresh and spontaneous feeling in my art. I especially enjoy painting familiar street scenes, shop, parks, and historic buildings."

Interestingly, subjects in several of her paintings no longer exist. These objects of nostalgia include Feger's Seafood Market on the North Causeway, their fishing boat - painted as 'Last of the Fleet', the NSB Civil Air Patrol Building, Bob's Auto (in that form), and several others.

Pollinator plants around NSB

Providing wildflower-rich habitat is the most significant action you can take to support pollinators. Native plants, which are adapted to local soils and climates, are usually the best sources of nectar and pollen for native pollinators. Source: xerces.org

LOST LANDMARK THE CORONADO HOTEL

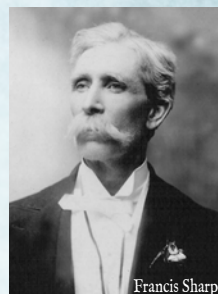

The Coronado Hotel, 1895

In the early days of the city we now know as New Smyrna Beach, a separate community known as Coronado Beach existed eastward across the river.

The first documented hotel on the oceanfront in Coronado Beach was The Coronado Hotel, which stood on the dunes at the end of present-day Flagler Avenue. Foster Austin completed the construction of the accompanying beach cabins that are described in one of the promotional pieces for the hotel. While the builder of the hotel itself is not known, it is thought that Austin, or some of Austin's partners, could be responsible. It is thought that the hotel also housed Coronado Beach's first postal service center.

In the early 1890s, Francis Sharp, a hotelier from the Atlanta area, purchased the establishment and came with his wife, Julia Sharp, and children to run The Coronado Hotel. Sharp and his family also owned a property behind the hotel which they referred to as Sharp's Lodge at Coronado.

Tragically, The Coronado Hotel burned in 1896. Only Mrs. Sharp and three of the Sharp children were in the hotel at the time and while all escaped safely, the hotel was a total loss. Following the fire, the Sharp family remained in Coronado Beach into the early 1900s and promoted Sharp's Lodge at Coronado to those visiting the area.

The Sharp's oldest son, William A. Sharp, was at that time the Art Professor at Stetson University in Deland. He is credited with the design of the stained-glass windows in Lee Chapel built in 1897, which still stands on Stetson property today. Family lore shares that William would return to The Coronado Hotel each weekend when classes ended at Stetson, traveling by horse and buggy. Following the Sunday evening meal, William would return to Deland. He reported being able to sleep most of the trip overnight as his horse knew the way back to the Stetson campus. Apparently, the first self-driving transportation was a good horse!

The Sharp family relocated to California following their older son as his career in art developed. By 1908 William A. Sharp, or W.A. Sharp as he became known, was commissioned to create the architectural drawings and stained-glass windows for the Mission Inn, a national historic landmark hotel in Riverside, CA. His artwork continues to draw a following among collectors and shares a glimpse of the early years of Coronado Beach.

MARY S. HARRELL BLACK HERITAGE MUSEUM

The Mary S. Harrell Black Heritage Museum is the cornerstone of the Historic West Side Community in New Smyrna Beach, Florida. The museum resides in the old Sacred Heart/St. Rita church building, constructed in 1899.

The museum displays a rich and varied collection of photos, oral histories, and memorabilia that tell the story of the people who live here. The collection educates citizens and students about the history and race relations in small town Florida over the course of the twentieth century. The oral histories and photographs speaks of the hardships and triumphs of this African community from the early 1900's to the present. These personal accounts of daily life make history come alive for young and old.

Mary S. Harrell, founder of the museum, knew the value of preserving history. She once stated "Slavery and discrimination may be ugly, but the stories of the past, both good and bad, need to be told. I want the children to know that was life then, and if you're not careful, you'll slip right back to it".

HELP US KEEP THIS THE “WORLD’S SAFEST BEACH”...

- Always swim directly in front of a lifeguard & observe beach warning flags posted on lifeguards towers.
- Be aware of rip currents. Rip currents are channels of fast-moving water that can pull even the most experienced swimmers from shore. Learn how to spot a rip current & how to respond if caught in one prior to entering the water.
- Supervise children closely when on the beach. Accompany children when crossing the traffic lanes or swimming & playing in the ocean.
- Keep a safe distance from the traffic lanes and parking areas when setting up personal areas for sitting & sunbathing. Sunbathing is permitted to the east and west of the traffic lanes.
- Watch for dangerous weather conditions. If thunder is heard, a lightning strike is possible. Take shelter in a vehicle or leave the beach to seek safety indoors.
- Be courteous to fellow beachgoers. Music or noise that can be heard from more than 50 feet of the source is illegal.
- Personal watercraft operators must stay in the proper zones and wear a helmet at all times.
- Alcohol, fireworks, glass containers & pets are not allowed on the beach. Service animals are permitted per the ADA.

10 Fun Facts About New Smyrna Beach!

Presented by the New Smyrna Beach Area Visitors Bureau

- 1 NSB was the largest attempt of British colonization in the New World. It is known as the second oldest city in Florida and celebrated its 250th birthday in 2018.
- 2 Our excellent surfing conditions have produced more than 8 world-class competitive surfers over the years.
- 3 NSB has the most biologically diverse estuary in North America. It is home to more than 400 species of birds, dolphins, manatees, alligators, turtles, and more.
- 4 There are no chain restaurants on the beachside. Everything is locally owned with only mom-and-pop style restaurants.
- 5 NSB is the "Redfish Capital of the World." Anglers can participate in world-class fishing offshore and in the backwaters of Mosquito Lagoon.
- 6 NSB is one of three locations in Florida where beach driving is allowed. But there are traffic-free zones as well!
- 7 Ponce de Leon Inlet is home to the Ponce de Leon Inlet Lighthouse, which is the tallest lighthouse in Florida and the second tallest masonry lighthouse in the country.
- 8 New Smyrna Beach is set on a barrier island. There is no access to A1A North or South out of New Smyrna Beach.
- 9 Winter, the dolphin known for its prosthetic tail and star of the Hollywood film, Dolphin Tale, was actually found and rescued in the Canaveral National Seashore in NSB.
- 10 NSB is a great location to watch rocket launches from the Kennedy Space Center. Drive down to the southernmost point of the Canaveral National Seashore for an up-close view!

LEAVE ONLY FOOTPRINTS

As a resident or visitor, there are many ways to take action to preserve our home of lush landscapes, abundant wildlife and pristine beaches for generations to come. An easy way to start is by practicing the Leave No Trace Seven Principles®:

 LEAVE NO TRACE	1. Plan Ahead and Prepare	2. Travel & Camp on Durable Surfaces	3. Dispose of Waste Properly
4. Leave What You Find	5. Minimize Campfire Impacts	6. Respect Wildlife	7. Be Considerate of Others

Below are a few more simple tips to be more environmentally conscious while you are out & about:

Support Eco-Conscious Businesses Many area businesses have chosen to promote sustainability by offering locally sourced food, avoiding single use plastic, and more.

Learn About The Local Ecosystems The Marine Discovery Center offers educational resources & events to promote preserving the Indian River Lagoon Estuary.

Take Part In A Clean Up Event Join Keep NSB Clean for a community clean up event. Visit www.keeptnsbclean.org for a schedule & more information.

Choose Alternative Transportation Leave your car keys at home! Traveling on foot or by bicycle is an easy & eco-friendly way to get around town.

PROTECTING OUR MARINE LIFE

Volusia County's beaches are home to hundreds of unique plant and animal species. Some species, such as the loggerhead sea turtle & the piping plover, are protected by state and federal laws due to being in danger of extinction. Volusia County has taken several steps to conserve the fragile marine ecosystem, such as regulating beach driving and parking. Check out the list below to learn how you can help protect our local marine wildlife!

DON'T disturb any sea turtle nests, markers, or protective screening

DON'T disturb any nesting seabirds, their eggs or nesting areas

DON'T use bright lights at night when on or near the beach

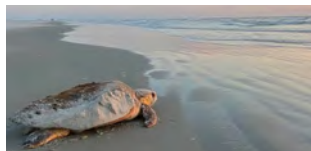

DON'T disturb or interfere with adult or hatchling sea turtles in the water, on the beach, or at their nests

DO use only designated driving lanes, parking areas and beach access boardwalks/walkways

DO flatten sandcastles, fill holes, and remove all items & trash when leaving the beach

DO use only red LED flashlights when on the beach at night

DO observe wildlife from a safe distance - if a animal appears to be injured or in danger, notify the proper authorities

CANAVERAL NATIONAL SEASHORE

Canaveral National Seashore contains nearly 58,000 acres of barrier island, open lagoon, coastal hammock, pine flatwoods, and offshore waters. With 24 miles of pristine beach, it is prime habitat for many threatened and endangered species and provides nesting beaches for several thousand protected marine turtles. Two thirds of the park is located within Mosquito Lagoon. The lagoon is designated as an estuary of national significance and an outstanding Florida water-way. It is one of the most diverse and productive estuaries in North America. The national seashore also contains cultural resources that reflect human history in the Florida peninsula from 2000 BC to early 20th century Florida settlement. Swimming, sunning, surfing and beachcombing are favorite pastimes on this strip of land that time as left untouched.

Entrances to Canaveral National Seashore in south New Smyrna Beach, Apollo beach district or east of Titusville, Playalinda beach district. There are also many entry points accessible by boat on the lagoon section of the seashore. For current operating hours and fees see www.nps.gov/cana.

Pet Friendly

When we say New Smyrna Beach is perfect for the whole family, we mean it. On our barrier island, every good boy (and girl) can come along on vacation. From lodging to restaurants to parks, our area rolls out the welcome mat for our four-legged friends.

No matter what type of accommodations you're looking for, there's a pet-friendly option available. Many of our area bed and breakfasts, hotels, motels, and condominiums allow man's best friend to spend the night, so there's no need to board your pup back home. However, if you need or want to board your animal during your visit, pet resorts and kennels are available.

Just make sure Buster has all his necessary shots before your trip.

When it's time to chow-down, you can find pet-friendly restaurants all across town. Both Canal Street and Flagler Avenue are lined with eateries that offer pet-friendly patios, gardens, and outdoor spaces. Many restaurant owners will set out water bowls so your pup stays well-hydrated. Others even serve up a little snack, like our historic Dairy Queen, where "doggie sundaes" are on the menu.

SAVOR THE FLAVORS OF NEW SMYRNA BEACH: A CULINARY ADVENTURE IN FLORIDA'S HIDDEN GEM

By Elisa Hernandez

New Smyrna Beach, a charming coastal town on Florida's east coast, is known for its pristine beaches, vibrant arts scene, and laid-back atmosphere. However, this sun-soaked paradise also boasts a diverse and exciting culinary scene. From fresh seafood to international delicacies, New Smyrna Beach is a food lover's paradise. Join us as we embark on a culinary journey through this hidden gem, discovering the mouthwatering dishes that make this beachside destination a must-visit for foodies.

Fresh Seafood Delights

As a coastal town, New Smyrna Beach takes pride in its fresh seafood offerings. Locally-owned eateries along the shoreline serve up the day's catch, sourced straight from the Atlantic Ocean. Indulge in a plate of succulent shrimp or a hearty bowl of seafood gumbo, or try the famous blackened grouper sandwich at a popular treehouse-themed bar and restaurant.

Authentic Italian Cuisine

Craving a taste of Italy? Look no further than the rustic Italian restaurants nestled in the heart of New Smyrna Beach. With their warm, inviting ambiance and mouth watering menu, you'll be transported straight to the cobblestone streets of Italy. Savor homemade pasta dishes like seafood linguine or the classic spaghetti alla carbonara, all while enjoying the soothing sounds of live music. Finish off your Italian escape with a velvety tiramisu or a refreshing scoop of gelato, as you bask in the charming atmosphere and create unforgettable memories.

Breakfast and Brunch Favorites

Start your day off right with a hearty breakfast or leisurely brunch at a trendy, yet cozy café in town. Choose from an array of delightful dishes like avocado toast, Belgian waffles, and fluffy omelets. Be sure to try their specialty lattes, or indulge in a mimosa made with freshly squeezed Florida oranges.

A Taste of the Caribbean

For a true tropical experience, visit the vibrant and colorful eateries offering a fusion of Caribbean and Spanish flavors. Sample dishes like the zesty Mojo Pork or the savory Ropa Vieja. Don't forget to try their famous Sangria, a refreshing blend of fruits and wine that perfectly complements the bold flavors of your meal.

Riverside Dining

Combine breathtaking views with delicious cuisine at popular riverside eateries. Nestled along the banks of the Indian River, these scenic dining establishments offer a farm-to-table experience. Enjoy dishes made from fresh, locally-sourced ingredients, like the Grilled Vegetable Quinoa Salad or the Blackened Mahi Mahi. As the sun sets, sip on a handcrafted cocktail while you take in the stunning riverside views.

Whether you're a seafood aficionado or simply looking to sample diverse flavors, New Smyrna Beach offers a culinary experience to suit every palate. This charming beachside town is truly a food lover's paradise, offering a taste of Florida that goes beyond its sun-kissed shores. So pack your appetite a delicious adventure

A little rain doesn't have to put a damper on your vacation. There's still plenty of fun to be had when the weather hits in New Smyrna Beach. Below are some of our favorite rainy-day activities, and don't worry, the sun'll be peeking out from behind those clouds in no time.

Visit Our Local Galleries

Head to Canal Street Historic Arts District to explore indoor galleries, like Jane's Art Gallery, Arts on Douglas, and more. If you're lucky, you may get the chance to visit with a local artist while they work in-studio. The galleries are free to visit.

Explore Our Local Museums

Step out of the rain and back in time with a visit to one of our area museums. Learn about the lives of New Smyrna Beach residents throughout history at the New Smyrna Museum of History and the Mary S. Harrell Black Heritage Museum, which are both filled with artifacts, local memorabilia, photography, and more.

Roll Out the Fun at New Smyrna Lanes

When the weather's left you with a few hours to spare, head over to New Smyrna Lanes. The family-owned bowling alley offers 16 lanes with state-of-the-art technology.

Get In Touch With Your Inner Artist

If the forecast is showing rain for days, sign up in advance for a class at a local arts-and-crafts workshop like Hammer & Stain or the Bob Ross Art Workshop. You'll be so busy unleashing your creativity that you'll forget about the rain.

See a Show at The Little Theatre

Celebrating their 75th year in operation, The Little Theatre of New Smyrna Beach, offers a variety of stage performances including plays, musicals, comedians, and more. Check out their website - www.nsbplayers.org - to see upcoming events & purchase tickets.

Unwind with a Spa Day

Escape a drizzly day by booking a treatment at one of our area spas, like The Spa at Venetian Bay, Angie's Serenity Day Spa, or Abundant Health Day Spa. Luxurious mani-pedis, soothing massages, and rejuvenating facials will transport you right to relaxation mode.

Test Your Skills at the NSB Escape Room

Consider yourself a whiz at riddles and clues? Prove it with an afternoon at the NSB Escape Room. In this fun, interactive group experience, participants race the clock and use puzzles to escape from a locked room.

Sample Something Special at Sugar Works Distillery

Pop into Sugar Works Distillery for a tasting of their popular rum, whiskey, and shine. You can also take a short tour of the distillery and learn about the process for making spirits.

Breakfast Spots

Whether you want a hearty meal of bacon and eggs or something more inventive like chai banana bread French toast, there's a bounty of breakfast options in New Smyrna Beach.

With two convenient locations, the Wake Up Café offers both traditional American breakfast fare as well as international specialties like alfajores pancakes, an Argentinian dish featuring dulce de leche caramel sandwiched between two buttermilk pancakes and dusted with powdered sugar. It's deliciously decadent.

Over on Flagler Avenue, Third Wave Café serves up brunch in its charming, verdant garden. A variety of crepes, both sweet and savory, are the stars here. Don't forget to try a mimosa or Bloody Mary, the perfect breakfast sidekicks.

More of the grab-and-go type? Stop by Go Juice NSB or the Mason Bar for an acai bowl bursting with color and flavor. Both eateries also offer healthful juices and smoothies, packed with fruits and veggies.

Coffee connoisseurs will want to enjoy a warm cuppa from local favorite, Island Roasters, where you'll find freshly roasted, organic and fair-trade coffees on the board. Warm up with a piping hot café au lait or go the iced route—the baristas use coffee cubes so your beverage still packs a punch after some time in the sun.

Surf's Up

There are a handful of great spots in NSB to catch a wave and plenty of surf shops to get you outfitted for the sport. Check out Jimmy Lane Surf Academy & Red Dog Surf Shop, a full-service shop offering training for all skill levels. The oldest shop in town, Nichols Surf Shop, is another full-service operation offering lessons, rentals, and a surf report. The report provides real-time details on local beaches to find the best surf action. If you are all set to surf and need to find the right beach, several spots offer great surf opportunities: Esther Street Beach, Crawford Road Beach, Clancy Beach Park, Hiles Boulevard, Beachway Beach, Matthews Avenue, and 27th Avenue. Where there are waves, you will see surfers. Grab your board and paddle out to catch the big one!

PONCE DE LEON INLET LIGHTHOUSE

Credit: Ponce Inlet Lighthouse on Facebook

In 1887 this 175 foot tall lighthouse flashed for the first time. Originally the beacon burned oil, but was converted to electricity in the 1920's.

203 steps spiral upward to this great lamp which has a revolving lens made in Paris in 1867. The brilliant light beamed out to sea six times every 26 seconds and was visible some 20 miles out.

The lighthouse rests on a 45 foot wide base with a 12 foot foundation of brick. At the base the structure is 32 feet in diameter and tapers upward 175 feet. Also on this property is a sea museum which was once the head lighthouse keeper's house. Four other buildings lend a view of the past as one building has been restored and furnished in the era of 1890.

The Ponce de Leon Lighthouse became a National Historic Landmark in 1972. Today, the lighthouse operates as a museum, lending both a glimpse into the past and a breathtaking view of Ponce Inlet, New Smyrna Beach and the surrounding area. Tours, both guided and self-guided, are available along with unique activities and events such as the monthly "Climb to the Moon". The Ponce de Leon Lighthouse is located at 4931 S. Peninsula Dr, Ponce Inlet, FL 32127. For more information call (386) 236-2150 or visit www.ponceinlet.org.

ELDORA...ANOTHER PLACE IN TIME

Enjoy a brief stroll through the century old live oaks to the once thriving village of Eldora. Close your eyes as you rock on the porch and imagine the excitement of the arrival of a steamboat, or just absorb a magnificent view of Mosquito Lagoon.

The Eldora State House was built around 1912 on the shore of Mosquito Lagoon and remained in use through the late 1950's. The last family to occupy the house was the Wells' family who vacated the building and moved to Jacksonville in the mid-1950's. In 1989, the non-profit organization Friends of Canaveral, including member T.C. Wilder (head of the steering committee to establish Canaveral National Seashore), started a campaign to raise money to renovate the property. One fundraising event, the Eldora Sampler, was held from the late 1980's until 1997. Finally, the restoration was completed and the Eldora State House "Renovation Completion Celebration" was held on May 22, 1999. The following day the house opened to visitors.

Friends of Canaveral still hold events at the house, including the annual Holiday Open House at Eldora. For more information visit www.friendsofcanaveral.com.

New Smyrna Beach offers children hours of fun - whether you like building sandcastles, swimming, surfing, boogie boarding, fishing, exploring, picnicking, and more! Summer Camps hosted by The Marine Discovery Center, Atlantic Center for the Arts, and The HUB on Canal offer children the opportunity for kids to make new memories, meet new people and make lifelong friends. Want to learn how to surf? Jimmy Lane Surfing Academy offers surf lessons to all ages on a daily & weekly basis. YMCA Summer Programs are a great resource for recreational and educational activities to keep children's minds and bodies active when school is out for the summer. For more information on fun for the kids, visit www.visitnsbfl.com/just-for-kids.
